Study Of Competition Law

Ireland

Competition Law and the Objectives of Competition Policy

Competition law involves the use of legal tools to control the exercise of market power by economic actors, in order to protect the competition forces within the market. The present paper intended to focus upon identification of provisions in Competition law in India which specifically clashes with provisions of Competition Law.

Enforcement of Competition Law

The central part of the course deals with Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010. Competition law is generally focused on competition in a market. Yet, as recent economic studies have clearly indicated, one of the main objectives of Competition Law is to promote fair competition between market players and measures to ensure that market players deal fairly and competitively.

Merger Under The Regime of Competition Law

Enforcement of competition by the EU or US authorities and has heard from them the experiences of the companies which had experience of hearing from them.

Choice of course: Please select carefully the course you want to study. LLM International Competition Law.

Examples of cartel and other anti-competitive cases from the UK. Published 18 November Competition Law and the Objectives of Competition Policy.
competition rules, and a study of Competition Law is therefore also a study of EU Administrative.